SNOW STORMS ACROSS POND

Severe Cold in Paris--- Snow Ties up Traffic in England and Wales.

By Publishers' Press.

Paris, April 5.—Great damage has resulted to vegetation from the unseasonable cold and snow. Paris was astonished because of the snow storm which prevailed today, the snow weighting down the newly leafed trees. One of the worst results of the cold weather is the suffering caused among the poor people.

London, April 5.—Traffic is tied up throughout the greater portion of England and Wales today as a result of heavy snow storms.

Local Athletes will Participate in Raleigh Meet

Although necessarily forced to withdraw from the track meet held at Guilford College last Saturday the Greensboro High School is preparing to give a good account of itself in the contest at Raleigh, Saturday, April 8. The candidates have been working hard for the past month, for undoubtedly the meet between Raleigh, Wilmington, Kinston and Greensboro high schools will be representative of the best athletic ability of the state high schools.

The winner of the contest will be in a position to claim the state's championship of the track. Realizing that the meet will be hard-fought and worthy of every effort and that by successful competitive meets only can track athletics be firmly established among high schools the Greensboro team will go well prepared to capture a majority of the events. The squad yesterday held the preliminary contests, the winners of which represent the school. Eleven men will form Greensboro's team to compete in the most important athletic contest of many a day. Capt. McDuffie and Banager Bond have decided upon these men as the best of the squad to carry off honors in the events:

Clement, half mile run; Yates, Bond, Foust, high jump; Bond, 220-yard low hurdles; McDuffie, 100 yard dash; Dixon, Foust, Marrs, 12-pound shot put; Yates, 220-yard dash; Grimsley, Bain, pole vault; Murray, mile run; Lindau, Grimsley, Bond, broad jump; McDuffie, 440-yard dash; Marrs, Bond, Clement, McDuffie, relay team.

BRYAN

Successful in Securing Democratic Support for Admission of Arizona.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington, April 5.—A program including the approval of the Arizona constitution, with the initiative, referendum and recall features retained, is being mapped out by the progressive Democrats. This step is being brought about by the coalition formed through the aid of William J. Bryan, who has loomed up as a man still to be reckoned with in Democratic councils. The carrying out of this program probably means the defeat of Senator Martin for floor leader in the upper house.

MEDICAL EXPERTS TO EXAMINE MENTAL CONDITION OF THAW

By Publishers' Press.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 5.—In commenting on the appointment of Drs. Flint and MacDonald to examine into the mental condition of Harry K. Thaw, who is a patient of Mattewan State Hospital, Charles Merschauser, attorney for Thaw, said tonight: "The appointment of these men, who have already said that Thaw was a paramoniac is a farce. They might just as well have appointed Dr. Lamb, hospital superintendent, and his assistant, Dr. Baker. What show would Thaw have with these two men?" Thaw is now making a final effort before the governor to secure his release.

Big Freight Wreck Near Brown Summit

A batch of eighteen freight cars were derailed between Rudd and Brown Summit yesterday morning about 5 o'clock and the track was not cleared until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A broken brake-beam caused the derailment. No one was hurt. The track was torn up for a considerable distance and workmen were hard at work all day getting the track in passable condition. The wreck being on a curve made the work all the more difficult.

Northbound trains No. 8, due to leave here at 7 a. m., and No. 44, due to leave here at 9:40 a. m., were held in the yards until after 3:15 p. m. Nos. 37 and 11, southbound, due to pass here at 6:30 and 7 a. m., did not arrive until after 3:45 p. m., No. 37 being the first train to pass the wreck. Northbound train, No. 36, and Southbound train, No. 7, were delayed for a couple of hours on account of the derailment.

WIFE AND TEN CHILDREN APPEAL TO GOVERNOR BROWN FOR PARDON FOR STRIPLING

Mrs. Edward Stripling and ten children passed through Greensboro last night on No. 43, enroute to Atlanta to go before Governor Brown today in the interest of Stripling. Today is the time set for the hearing regarding Stripling's application for pardon. It will be remembered that Stripling killed a Georgia man fourteen years ago and escaped from jail while under a life sentence. He was discovered a few weeks ago in Danville, Va., going under the alias of R. E. Morris, and was serving as chief of police of that city. There is considerable interest in the outcome of the pardon application.

Aviator Comes Today; Program of Event at Fair Ground

Lincoln Beachy arrives today from Pinehurst, with his Curtiss biplane and assistants, and Friday morning the machine will be carried to the fair grounds and erected, preparatory to the flights Friday afternoon.

The admission to the park for the event will be 25 and 50c. Space will be reserved for the purpose of parking vehicles and automobiles.

The program of the event is as follows: First there will be a lecture before the grand stand by Mr. Beachy, on aviation and explaining the principle and construction of his machine. The first flight will consist of dips and curves. The second flight will be an illustration of bomb dropping. The third and last flight will be the man carrying flight.

With favorable weather a great exhibition of flying is expected. If the weather is very bad or the wind high it will, of course, greatly interfere with the event.

DEFECT IN REVENUE ACT MEANS LOSS TO SCHOOL FUND

If Decision of Judge Daniels is Upheld in Case of Kitchin vs. Wood Taxes will be Levied at Old Rate—Suit to Test Law.

According to a decision handed down by Judge Frank A. Daniels last evening in the mandamus proceedings instituted by W. W. Kitchin, governor, vs. W. P. Wood, auditor, the State Department of Education will lose thousands of dollars which the recent legislature thought it was adding to the school fund of the state.

In the revenue act passed by the 1911 legislature the ad valorem tax was raised from 43 to 45 cents on the $100 valuation. By an inadvertence the constitutional equation of making the poll three times the amount of the poll was not observed, the poll remaining $1.29. as formerly, when it should have been raised to $1.35.

The impression held by the state is that the legislature intended that the poll should be $1.35 and the governor instructed the state auditor to print in the blanks to be sent out the figures $1.35 instead of $1.29 as the act provided. Upon his refusal to do so the attorney general, at the instance of the governor instituted mandamus proceedings to compel the auditor to make the figures $1.35 and the matter was argued before Judge Daniels last night. The auditor filed with the Judge a demurrer, setting forth his reasons for refusing to follow the instructions of the state.

G. L. Jones, assistant attorney general, represented the state and B. F. Dixon, Jr., appeared for the auditor. After hearing able argument by counsel for both sides Judge Daniels decided to sustain the demurrer filed by the auditor, basing his decision on the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Russell vs. Ayer. The state filed notice of appeal and an effort will be made to have the Supreme Court pass on the matter next week in order to ascertain just how the auditor shall proceed. The suit was brought by both parties to the action to bring about this result. In case the demurrer is sustained by the Supreme court the two cents added to the ad valorem tax will be void and the rates of 43 cents on the $100 valuation and the poll tax of $1.29 as provided in the revenue act of 1909 will be effective.

A case exactly like the present one was before the Supreme court in 1897, being brought by Governor Russell against State Auditor Ayer. In that case the Supreme court held that the failure to observe the constitutional equation made both the property tax and the poll tax void and that the Revenue Act of 1895 had to take the place of that of 1897. In that case, however, Justices Clark and Douglass filed dissenting opinions, the majority opinion being by Chief Justice Faircloth, Justices Fruches and Montgomery.

In the present case the attorney general hopes that the Supreme court will overrule the opinion of the court in Russell vs. Ayer case and that it will adopt the view of the dissenting justices, that it was clearly the purpose of the Legislature to make the poll tax $1.35 and preserve the equation, that the ad valorem tax is the basis and that the poll tax must be made three times that tax.

CHARLESTON BUSINESS MEN WERE AGREEABLY SURPRISED TO FIND SPLENDID CITY HERE

The first annual excursion of the Trade Extension League of the Charleston Chamber of Commerce, extending over a period from April 3 to April 8, included Greensboro in the itinerary, and the Charlestonians arrived in this city yesterday from Winston-Salem, where they spent the previous night. The party was traveling on a train composed of five coaches. About fifty Charleston business men composed the party, which was accompanied by the Metz Military band of fifteen pieces. The special train arrived here at 9:50 a. m. and the party remained in the city about seventy minutes, leaving for Charlotte and intermediate stops at 11 o'clock.

The Charlestonians were met at the station by representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, among those of the number being President R. C. Hood and Secretary C. C. McLean, Mayor E. J. Stafford, Dr. J. I Foust, Dr. J. T. Battle, Julian Price, W. A. Hewitt, R. C. Bernau, C. M. Vanstory, J. J. Phoenix, R. M. Phillips, J. T. Fain, Ceasar Cone and others. The Public Service Company provided two trolley cars and the party boarded these and was shown as much of the city as could be seen through the rain, from Proximity to the Normal College. The state of the weather was something for which the visitors could not hold Greensboro responsible, as they had found it bad elsewhere, but it was unfortunate for the city as it prevented the Charlestonians from discovering just how attractively Greensboro shows up under favorable conditions. The visitors were greatly pleased, however, and most of them vastly surprised to find how large and important a place is this city; which is proof of the fact that the business men of Charleston are acting wisely in making an effort to get acquainted with the territory of the North State.

The chief exhibit brought with them by the Charleston men was A. W. McKeand, the $6,000 secretary of their Chamber of Commerce. McKeand is evidently a live wire, and is doubtless responsible for the awakening which started Charleston business men on their first annual trade seeking tour. He is a specimen secured from Oklahoma City, the greatest of all the boom towns; and he is expected to earn his salary by infusing new life into old Charleston.

The party of visitors was composed of the following named gentlemen, representing the respective business houses mentioned:

Allan, James & Co., (Whol. and Ret. Jewelry), James Allan.

COST

Of the Philippines Subject of Congressman Cox's Investigation.

By Publishers' Press.

Washington, April 4.—In the House this afternoon a bill was introduced by Congressman Cox of Ohio requesting the President to send to Congress information showing the entire cost to date of the occupation of the Philippine Islands. Congressman Cox declared that the islands are a burden in time of peace and an incumbrance in the event of war; and stated that he intends to urge a treaty neutralizing the islands and placing them under the control of the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

WOMEN SOB WHILE WOMAN SLAYER TELLS OF CRIME

By Publishers' Press.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 5.—While reciting the circumstances which led to the killing of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Binford, Mrs. T. M. Brooks, who is charged with the murder of Mrs. Binford, collapsed in the witness chair in the district court this afternoon. The killing occurred on January 16, last. As Mrs. Brooks told her story the court room was crowded with women, nearly all of whom were in tears, while many sobbed aloud. After court adjourned for the day nearly every woman present filed past Mrs. Brooks' chair and shook her hand and whispered words of sympathy and encouragement.

New Railroad For Greensboro

J. W. Sykes, of this city, vice president of the North Carolina Traction Company, of Danbury, is trying to arouse interest in a railroad from this city to Floyd, Va. A survey for a road from Winston to Floyd has been made and the right of way secured. Also the contract for a portion of the work has been let. However, it was decided to begin the road from Greensboro and construct the Winston end later. A. M. Clarke, of Southern Pines, is president of the road, while Dr. H. P. MacKnight, of Southern Pines, is general manager. Mr. Sykes will consult a number of citizens today regarding the matter and it is likely that Greensboro will be called upon to show her interest in the project. The motive power for the road would be supplied by gasoline engines.

NORTH STATE CAPITAL NEWS

Governor Kitchin Seeking Members for Administration Building Commission.

Special to The Telegram.

Raleigh, April 5.—Governor Kitchin is moving in the matter of the appointment of the building commission for the erection of the $250,000 state administration building for which bonds were authorized by the general assembly. He has selected seven citizens for the commission but will not make their names public until he has acceptances for a full board. It is learned that he invited Col. A. H. Boyden of Salisbury, and that he declines to accept on the ground that no member of the recent assembly should serve. He was author of the bill in the senate. Also the governor has invited J. Elwood Cox, who was the governor's Republican opponent for the governorship. It is not known what Mr. Cox will do. The commission has the selection of the location of the building as well as full control as to plans.

The Bertie Indian Land Claims.

In connection with the recent sensational claim of the Tuscarora Indians of New York, that they have a reversionary claim on 126,000 acres of valuable farming and timber lands in Bertie county at the expiration of a 150-year lease in 1916 Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes is to get out very soon now a complete statement in booklet form of the whole transaction between the Indians and the state back to the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries under which the Indians set up their claim. Col. Grimes has finished his research and has the manuscript ready for the printers. He finds, he says, that back in 1816 the supreme court annulled all the state's transactions with the Indians up to that time and ruled that the Indians had fee simple and not merely "Indian title" to the lands. Then he finds that in 1832 there was a deal duly consumated between the state and the Indians by which the state paid the Indians $3,250 in cash for a complete quit claim to all title in the lands and to any reversionary right after the expiration of the leases now in question and said to expire 1916. Col. Grimes is having his statement printed for distribution on account of very many calls coming in for it. The People's Rights Society of Lewiston, N. Y., has taken up the case for the Indians and called on Governor Kitchin for a statement of the case from the viewpoint of the state. This was turned over to Col. Grimes

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS FROM TWENTY COUNTIES WILL ENTER CONTESTS IN GREENSBORO FRIDAY

Tomorrow evening recitation and declamation contests between about thirty rural high schools of Guilford and adjoining counties will be held in Greensboro. Twenty counties will be represented. The recitation contest will be for girls and the declamation contest for boys. It was at first the intention of the organization arranging for the event to have a track meet in the afternoon, but owing to the late start this feature had to be called off.

The preliminary for the recitation contest will be held in the Smith Memorial building tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and at the same hour in West Market annex the preliminary for the declamation contest will be pulled off. From the contestants six reciters and six debaters will be selected.

At 8 o'clock in the opera house the regular contest will be pulled off and the judges will decide as to the best recitation of the six; also the best declaimer. A large number of people will be here for the event, it being likely that each school will be well represented.

The following transfers have been recorded in the office of the register of deeds: M. F. Sechrest to J. B. Craver, house and lot at High Point; R. E. Blair to C. E. Kiger, lot in High Point; J. M. Millikan, et al, to B. F. Copeland, et al, store and lot at Guilford Station; A. Schiffman to W. P. and E. N. Holt farm east of the city.

Senator Bailey is resigned to his fate —that is all.

What is Coca-Cola? seems to be as puzzling question as What is whiskey? to the courts.

Officially speaking this is spring, but no man in Greensboro has yet had the courage to wear a straw hat.

Special editions of the Congressional Record will now be issued every day, covering the news of the extra session.

The Republicans in Congress had no trouble in finding a Mann willing to accept the empty honor of minority leadership.

Dr. Charles A. Bland, a Charlotte dentist, defeated Mayor Hawkins for reelection. The dentist candidate evidently had a pull with the voters.

Another noticeable fact is that while Uncle Joe Cannon fell the farthest and hit the hardest, he has not threatened to resign.

Oyster Bay went Democratic in the municipal election Tuesday. Mr. Roosevelt as a private citizen does not appear to wield any of his old time influence.

The manner in which Japan is being urged to enter into an arbitration agreement may indicate that Congressman Hobson is not the only man afflicted with the yellow perilitis.

Judging from the amount of money the Charlotte mayoralty candidates invested in advertising, that office must be a jucier plum than a Greensboro commissionership.

As a boss Charles F. Tammany Murphy does not appear to be a complete success any longer. A Tammany man was elected United States Senator, but not the Tammany man Murphy wanted to place in that position.

The Journal says the future of Atlanta's horse show is to come in for attention at an early date. Atlanta never did have anything but a clothes horse show for the benefit of the women, and they can have that without imposing on the poor horses.

Resenting charges made against his administration, Mayor Magee of Pittsburg has asked the Pennsylvania Legislature to make an investigation of Pittsburg municipal affairs. Mayor Magee and his administration may be all right; but, as a rule, it would be safe to assume that there was something rotten in municipal administration circles in Pittsburg, as the "Smoky City" has always endeavored to help maintain Pennsylvania's reputation as the "graft State."

Champ Clark's speech of acceptance had the right ring and those who know the Missourian well believe he is thoroughly honest and means to deal on the square with the country. If the Democrats in Congress follow his leadership, it will soon be up to the Republican Senate and President to say whether or not the country is to have tariff revision downward and honest, economical administration of the federal government.

In advertising for an office but one man can win, as the defeated candidate for mayor of Charlotte probably realizes by this time. In advertising for business, every advertiser can win. If the business man knows anything whatever of the art of advertising and has something worth while to offer the people, his advertising will produce results if it is placed in a live newspaper having solid circulation. That is the great advantage of advertising for business instead of advertising for an office. However, if a candidate desires publicity, wishes to reach the people with his statements or make known anything to them, the newspaper is the surest, quickest and cheapest way to reach the public.

DEATH OF TILLMAN RECALLS DEATH OF GONZALES.

The death of James H. Tillman of South Carolina at Asheville a few days ago has recalled to mind the fact that a little more than eight years ago Tillman killed Editor Gonzales of the Columbia State in the South Carolina capital.

Factional politics had been rampant in South Carolina for sevaral years at that time and there was so much prejudice and bitterness rankling in the minds of the friends of the dead editor and of Tillman that it was difficult to decide the right or wrong of the matter on its merits. The general opinion outside of South Carolina was that Gonzales was foully murdered, and the opinion prevailed that his newspaper attacks on Tillman did not justify the personal attack on the editor. This was, of course, the opinion of the friends of the dead man; but the partisans of Tillman contended that he was justified in resenting the attacks made on him by the State and they had their explanation as to why it was that an unarmed man was shot down by an armed man without being given the shadow of a chance to defend himself.

The acquittal of Tillman at his trial for the killing of Gonzales was a verdict altogether amazing to people outside of South Carolina, who have never been able to see any grounds in reason for justifying the slaying of the editor. It was a case similar to that of the killing of Carmack of Tennessee; and, as in the case of the Coopers, the reason Tillman did not pay the penalty for his crime was due to a state of affairs the remembrance of which will always bring the blush of shame to the countenances of honest, fair minded citizens of South Carolina.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch, edited by a South Carolinan who was eight years ago engaged in newspaper work in that State, gives a fair resume of the Tillman-Gonzales case. It is from one familiar with the facts, and is as follows:

"Eight years ago on the 15th of January, Narcisso G. Gonzales, editor of the Columbia State, was shot down almost within the shadow of the Capitol of South Carolina by James H. Tillman, and four days later, after intense suffering, died of his injuries. Last Saturday night Colonel Tillman died at Asheville, North Carolina, of tuberculosis, with which he had been afflicted for several years. The account is settled at last, as we do not believe that a day or an hour passed after the commission of his bloody deed when Tillman would not have given worlds, in spite of all his bravado, to have brought back to life the unarmed victim of his hate.

"Gonzales was editor of the Columbia State; Tillman was a candidate for Governor of South Carolina. The editor did not think he was fit for the office, and in the discharge of what he regarded his highest duty as a journalist and counting no sacrifice too great for the State, he warned the people against placing their confidence in this candidate seeking their support. Not only did he challenge the right of Colonel Tillman to aspire to the office he sought, but with merciless invective and accusation and argument and appeal he held up the candidate to the distrust of the people. Some of his friends thought that he went too far, that he said too much, that having been instrumental in saving the State from the election of Tillman as Governor he should have refrained from further animadversion; but strong in his own sense of responsibility he pursued the object of his criticism, reckoning only as to his own duty as he saw it.

"We believe that it was on the last day of the session of the General Assembly. By virtue of his office as Lieutenant-Governor, Colonel Tillman was President of the State Senate. Leaving his seat after presiding over the deliberations of that body and armed with a pistol he went out into the main street of the city, and meeting Mr. Gonzales, who was unarmed, who never went armed, shot him down without giving him a chance for his life. It was a brutal and cowardly thing to do, and of his wounds Gonzales died. Tillman was tried for murder in the county of Lexington, and was acquitted.

"The case is closed, finally, in this world; but standing in Sumter Street, Columbia, within sight of the State Capitol and only two squares distant from the South Carolina University, a great granite shaft testifies to the respect in which the people of the State held Gonzales, and their enduring protest against the deep damnation of his taking off. College students pass by it every day on their way to their classes, and from it they must learn lessons of civic courage and manly devotion, and there it will stand for all time, in summer's heat and winter's cold the testimonial of a people's regard for the man who died for doing what he believed to be his duty to his State."

AN OPPORTUNITY

The improvement in the news service of The Telegram under its new ownership has been the subject of much favorable comment in Greensboro and elsewhere, both among subscribers of the paper and others. This is gratifying, of course, to those who are striving to make a showing in the columns of the paper and to build it up to a point where it will be a source of pride to every person desiring to see Greensboro have a first class Democratic morning paper. However, but little of what the proprietors of The Telegram expect to accomplish has been done. A newspaper property cannot be built up in a month or a year. This is especially true when, as in the case of this paper, it is found necessary to secure practically new equipment and mechanical facilities for newspaper making.

Down to date The Telegram has installed in the composing room a large amount of new type and material; and a new press has been in the railroad yards here several days, awaiting the coming of an expert to erect it. It is expected that this press will be running within a couple of weeks, and it will enable the proprietors to issue a larger paper.

As readers of the paper have noted, a telegraph service has been secured. After the enlargement of the paper this service will be expanded to fit the new Telegram.

In addition to wire service The Telegram is represented at Raleigh by a special correspondent, who is one of the livest news gatherers in the State. We, also, have special correspondents in Washington City and New York. The special and exclusive news and feature service of the paper, when all the necessary arrangements have been completed, will not be excelled by that of any newspaper published in North Carolina.

As rapidly as possible The Telegram is endeavoring to fulfill the promises made when the new owners took charge. These promises were to give the city and this section of country a first-class local newspaper, carrying in addition all the general news the average reader desires. To accomplish this purpose it has been found necessary to largely increase the investment in this property over any amount of cash previously put into the business and to cause the account for running expenses to be increased by several figures. Several new employes have been added to the paper's force, and others will be employed later.

This outlay of money as an investment and in operating expenses means, of course, that we cannot continue to publish The Telegram at $3 per year, which was an insufficient price for it under the previous management. Consequently, it was determined to raise the price to $5 per year, which is less than the subscription price of any other first-class morning daily published in this State. This price is so conservative and reasonable that we feel no reader of the paper will have grounds for raising objection to it. It may be necessary later on to increase the price of The Telegram to the figures maintained by other North Carolina morning papers, but we trust this will not be found necessary, as it will always be the policy of The Telegram to give the patrons of this paper the maximum of service for the minimum cost. Before putting the new subscription rate into effect, however, The Telegram determined to afford all old subscribers and all new ones the opportunity to secure the paper another year at the old rate. Hence the offer announced last Sunday to send the paper from May 1st for one year for the price of $3.

This generous offer is one which should command the attention of every old subscriber and of every person desiring to become a subscriber to Greensboro's only Democratic morning daily. This offer simply means that you can read the improved Telegram for another year for the old price. In other words, you get a $5 paper for $3. The saving amounts to forty per cent. of the price of the new Telegram and to big interest on the money paid.

Again, when it is considered that the subscription price of The Telegram is fixed on the cash in advance basis, the offer increases in attractiveness. The Telegram is due the money in advance anyway.

This saving of two dollars per year in cash is a much better business proposition than would be an offer to give our subscribers a cheap premium, worth probably fifty cents, and require them to pay the full subscription price and several times the value of the premium in addition.

The offer is made in good faith and the terms will be rigidly adhered to. After May 1st the price of The Telegram will be $5 per year. Until May 1st old subscribers can get it for $3 by paying up to date and paying a year in advance. New subscribers can get it one year for $3.

This opportunity is worth while. Take advantage of it.

A Reliable Medicine—Not A Narcotic

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe., Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Howard Gardner.

What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statements of nearby residents who have been permanently cured?

C. B. Ellis, Front St., Burlington, N. C., says: "I have no hesitation in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills are a reliable kidney medicine and one that lives up to all the claims made for it. When I was suffering from an attack of kidney complaint, I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and after using them, the pain disappeared. ## KITCHEN LORE

Celery Soup.

A delicious cream of celery soup is made by cooking together one pint of milk, one-half onion, one stalk celery (cut fine without leaves), salt, pepper. Cook until celery is tender.

Creamed Dried Green Pea Soup.

Cook peas until soft enough to pass through a sieve and add two cupfuls of the pulp to the following sauce in a double boiler: One quart of milk, four teaspoons of flour, two tablespoons of butter. Melt the butter, add flour and stir; cook till smooth. Add milk slowly. Season to taste.

Onions for Breakfast.

Take good-sized onions, peel and slice them and boil till tender. Put a layer of onions in a pan and cover with bread crumbs, salt, pepper and butter; then another layer of onions, and so on till pan is full. Pour over it a cup of cream and bake till brown.

Fish Balls.

Two cups of raw potatoes, one cup of shredded codfish, one egg. Sason with pepper only. Boil potatoes, and then mash; add small piece of butter. When cold, beat egg separately; add yolk, then codfish, and last the white of egg. Make balls and roll in bread crumbs, drop in deep, very hot fat, until brown.

Crown Princess' Almond Cake.

Here is the German crown princess' receipt for almond cake:

One pound of sweet almonds; 15 or 20 bitter almonds; one pound of powdered sugar; a little rosewater.

Skin the almonds the night before, and put in cold water. In the morning dry them off between towels, and when dry pound them in a marble mortar. Add the sugar, mix well, and make into a paste. Add the rosewater, but be careful not to make it too moist. Form into a ball and bind up in a cloth. Let it lie for several hours. Then put on a board and roll out.

Cut out the cakes and place on a piece of paper with sugar on it. Put the paper on a tin and place in moderate oven. It should be dried rather than baked, and must not be allowed to get yellow.

RESTORES PLEASING PLUMPNESS

Samose Sold Under Howard Gardner's "No Cure No Pay" Plan.

There are a good many people in Greensboro who ardently wish they could find some way of getting fat and plump. While not ill, yet they are so thin and scrawny that their friends think they cannot be well. In nine cases out of ten this condition can be readily overcome by using the combination of flesh-forming foods known as Samose. This little tablet taken three times a day with the food does wonders in building up good health and restoring the pleasing plumpness that is so desirable.

Howard Gardner has the agency for this preparation and sells it with the promise that if it does not do all that is claimed for it in making people gain in weight and in health, the money will be refunded.

You certainly can afford to try a 50c. box on this plan, as Samose will cost you nothing unless it gives satisfaction.

"You sign this deed with your own free will, do you, madam?" asked the notary public.

"What do you mean by that?" asked the large, florid-faced woman.

"I mean there has been no compulsion on the part of your husband, has there?"

"Him!" she ejaculated, turning to look at the meek little man sitting behind her;—"I'd like to see him try to compulse me."

Catching the Snake's Tail.

This is a Japanese game and is played as follows: The players form a line, each resting his hands on the shoulders of the player in front. The one who is the catcher is out. The first player on the line is called the head and the last the tail. When the game begins the catcher stands about fifteen or twenty feet away from the head and at a given signal tries to catch the tail or end player without pushing any one else. The others defend the tail by moving about in any way they choose, except that the line must not be broken, for should it break the tail is considered caught and consequently must become the catcher, while the catcher goes to the head of the line.

Canada should try to look its best this summer. Mr. Beveridge is going to look it over and write a book about it. —Chicago News.

VIBRATION IS LIFE!

The secret of the ages has been discovered in VIBRATION. Great scientists tell us that we owe not only our health, but even our LIFE and strength, to this wonderful force. Vibration promotes Life and Vigor, strength and beauty.

Vibration is one of the most marvelous curative agents known. It is the remedy provided by nature for many ills and diseases. It relieves like magic. Simple, sure and inexpensive—it banishes drugs forever.

Vibrate your body and make it well. You have no right to be sick!

Pain, suffering and disease are unnatural—they are wrong. It is your duty to be well. Don't try to stand pain—STOP IT. No matter what ails you—even if others have told you that your case was incurable—DON'T GIVE UP HOPE. The great natural force, VIBRATION, is recognized today as among the greatest of curative agents.

The Lambert Snyder Vibrator

Will Stop Your Pains and Aches.

There is only One Disease---CONGESTION.
There is only One Cure---CIRCULATION.

Stagnation is DEATH. Vibration is LIFE.

Thousands of people in this country testify to the virtue of the Lambert Snyder Vibrator for relieving suffering and curing disease. We want you to know this by using one yourself.

You know when you hurt yourself you rub the spot. When your head aches you rub your temples. Why? Because vibration is Nature's own remedy, and rubbing is Nature's crude way of creating vibration and starting the blood to going. Disease is only another name for congestion. Where there is disease or pain there you will find the blood congested and stagnant. There can be no pain or disease where the red blood flows in a rich and steady stream. Good circulation means good health. Congested circulation means disease and pain.

It is capable of giving from 9,000 to 15,000 vibrations per minute—100 times more than is possible with the most expert master of massage. Is the greatest medical discovery of the Twentieth Century. It is light, compact instrument, weighs twenty ounces, can be operated by yourself with one hand by moving the steel head over the rigid steel rod, and can be placed in contact with any part of the body. It is Nature's own remedy developed and concentrated, and with one minute's use sends the red blood rushing into the congested parts, removing all disease and pain.

The ranks of experienced chauffeurs have recently been increased by the addition of Miss Dorothy Schwartz of Edwardsville, Ill., who was presented with a twenty horsepower runabout on her fifth birthday and is a familiar sight in the city in which she lives driving her car. She began to learn the automobile when but three years old, her father allowing her to hold the steering wheel of his machine during their trips together.

United States Mail.

An enjoyable game is United States mail. Place the chairs at equal distances and in each a player. These players choose the names of cities of the United States, and the leader, who must have a good memory, will begin the game by calling out, for instance, "Buffalo and San Francisco." These two cities will now change places, and if the leader can possess himself of either vacant seat in the course of the exchange the person thus ousted must be leader in his turn. When the leader calls "General delivery" every one must move to some new seat, and the person that is left without a seat is the new leader.

The old game of stagecoach is played in much the same way except that different parts of the stagecoach and its various passengers, the horses and so on are selected by the players, and the leader must improvise a story introducing as many of these names as possible. As the name of each player is introduced he must rise and whirl around, resuming his seat. When the leader says "Stagecoach" the whole company must go through this performance, and when the climax of a breakdown is reached all change places, and in the melee the story teller finds a chair, thus forcing a new story teller to the front.

Geographical Comparisons.

It is only by comparison that some things can be understood, and this is particularly true of divisions of the earth's surface. Every one has a fairly clear idea of the size of his own state or county or even of the whole area of the United States. By comparing other countries and seas with those that are familiar to us on the map a much clearer notion of them is obtained.

Greece is about the size of Vermont.

Palestine is about one-fourth of the size of New York.

Hindustan is more than a hundred times as large as Palestine.

The great desert of Africa has nearly the dimensions of the United States.

The Red sea would extend from Washington to Colorado, and it is three times as wide as Lake Ontario.

Conundrums.

When are two apples alike? When pa(i)red.

Why is a bedcover like a mustard plaster? Because it is a counter-pane.

Why does tying a slow horse to a post improve his pace? It makes him fast.

Why are gloves unsalable articles? Because they are made to be kept on hand.

Why is life like this riddle? Because you must give it up.

Why does a boy sneeze three times? Because he can't help it.

Why are some women like facts? Because they are stubborn things.

A Cure For Balking.

A farmer thus cured a horse of balking: He went to a stall of wood for a small load, but his horse would not pull a pound. He did not beat him, as most men would, but simply tied him to a tree and left him there. At sunset he went to the stack again, but the horse still refused to draw. So he put a blanket on him and left him there for the night. In the morning he still refused to draw, but at noon, being hungry, he started at once and drew the load to the house. The farmer returned and got another load before feeding him and then gave him a good dinner.

Enpeck's will was being drawn up by the lawyer.

"I hereby bequeath all my property to my wife," dictated Enpeck. "Got that down?"

"Yes," answered the lawyer.

"On condition," continued Enpeck, "that she marries within a year."

"But why that condition?" asked the man of law.

"Because," answered the meek and lowly testator. "I want somebody to be scrry that I died."

Miss Alice Nelson Died Wednesday

Miss Alice DeLeu Nelson died yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the family residence, 202 South Eugene street, following an illness of about two months. The condition of Miss Nelson had not been considered serious until a few days ago and even yesterday her friends were cherishing the hope that she would soon recover. She is survived by a brother, John J. Nelson, and a sister, Miss Olivia Nelson.

The funeral will be held from the First Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a faithful and devoted member, this afternoon at 4 o'clock conducted by the pastor, Rev. Melton Clark. The pall-bearers will be: Dr. B. B. Williams, R. R. King, R. F. Dalton, S. L. Gilmer, C. M. Vanstory, C. G. Wright. The flower-bearers will be Mesdames H. D. Blake, Mary Crawford, T. G. Faulkner, A. B. Kimball, Leonard Faulkner, C. M. Vanstory. The interment will follow in Green Hill.

Miss Nelson was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Nelson, her father having served for years as clerk of Guilford Superior court. She was born in Guilford county and was an alumna of G. F. College. Miss Nelson was well known throughout the entire county and was loved by every one who knew her. Of a bright and cheery disposition, Miss Nelson never looked on the dark side of occurrences and she was like a ray of sunshine wherever she went, always lending a word of encouragement and cheer to those in trouble and distress. She was a zealous worker in home and church life and was ever striving to render assistance to those in need. Truly she will be greatly missed in the many homes where she has often visited.

The deceased was one of the most energetic workers of the local chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, having served several times as president of the chapter. At the time of her death she was vice president and chairman of the monumental association of the chapter. Many old veterans throughout the county will remember the kindnesses received at her hands. The members of Guilford Chapter, U. D. C. are requested to meet at the late residence this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to attend the funeral.

Adulterated Literature

By AMANDA MOORE

"When they taught children to read in the elementary schools they put a two-edged sword in their hands," thus a recent speaker, with obvious truth. Any power that a child acquires is a two-edged sword, as you may see the moment a baby begins to crawl, and crawls first where it should not. The world is nevertheless agreed that babies must not be prevented from crawling, and most of us regard education in much the same way.

Another speaker on the same occasion "was afraid that many children in elementary and secondary schools read literature that was not good for them."

Of course they do, and while human nature remains as it is, and the supply of books decently various, you may be sure that all children who learn to read will read things that are not good for them. They always have. Which of us does not remember meddling with books with which we had no business?

But when we find our speaker going on declare that "there ought to be laws passed against this sort of thing" we open discreet eyes. "They ought not," we are assured, "to have adulteration of the food of the mind more than they have adulteration of the food of the body."

Well, our law courts sometimes have difficulty in deciding what is adulteration in books? There is here some confusion of thought. Children often read books not good for them. But how often do they find books which do postive harm?

Probably by the plaint of adulteration is meant the novelette and the penny dreadful. It seems impossible to make serious-minded people understand how little harm there is in these ingenious compositions.

No form of literature in the world is more moral than the novelette, which punishes all its villians, with an accurate skill worthy of Sir William Gilbert's Bakado. As for the penny dreadful, its morality at the worst is that of the old ballads of Robin Hood. No doubt it lacks their charm, but no one has yet proposed to limit children to the masterpieces of literature. If anyone there be who would object to a boy reading of the exploits of Robin Hood and Little John, we do not want to hear his views on the education of the young, because what hewants to educate is not boys, but a new and improved species.

SOCIETY NOTES FROM THE NATION'S CAPITOL.

Special to The Telegram.

(By CONSTANCE CARRUTHERS.)

Washington, April 5.—Mr. Robert Bacon, American Ambassador to France and Mrs. Bacon, who returned to the United States a few days ago will remain here for the perfecting of arrangements for the marriage of their son, Mr. Robert L. Bacon, and Miss Cecilia Jacqueline May, youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. Henry May of Washington. At the time of their arrival Miss May, was in New York where her gowns to be worn as an atendant at the von Bernstorff-Pourtales wedding, were being made, and met Mr. Bacon's parents upon their arrival. When the ambassador and Mrs. Bacon were in this country last year they witnessed the wedding of their second son, Mr. Gaspard Bacon, to Miss Priscilla Toland, of Philadelphia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Toland. The ceremony took plaee last July at the Toland country place, Wynnwood. No date is set for the wedding, as Miss Halford will spend the summer aboad with her mother. They expect to sail April 15, Mrs. Halford's health permitting.

Diplomatic society is rejoicing in the prospective return to Washington of Dr. Antonio Martin Pivero, who will succeed Dr. Justiz, the Cuban Minister, who has been transferred to the legation at The Hague. Dr. Pivero was first secretary of the Cuban Legation here for years, when Senor Quesada was Minister. Mme. Rivero was also well known in society, and was an efficient aid to Mm. Quesada during the early days of the Cuban Legation in this city. They will come to Washington this spring.

President Taft has been invited to open the second international convention on child welfare, which meets in Washington April 25, at the Arlington hotel.

Hearst, widow of former Senator Hearst, of California, known as one of the founders of the National Congress of Mothers, is expected to attend, among the distinguished guests. Mrs. Frederick C. S. Choff, of Philadelphia, president of the national body, is now in the South organizing new branches, but will be in Washington for the congress.

Pre-Nuptial Reception.

This evening at 8:30 o'clock in West Market Street Methodist church Miss Marjorie Long will become the bride of Charles D. Benbow, Jr. The wedding will be the social event of the season and a large number of out-of-town guests are here for the occasion.

Following the rehearsal last evening, Miss May Norris Richardson, who is to be one of the bridesmaids, entertained the bridal party and a few guests at her home on Smith street, the occasion being an informal affair.

In the parlor, where the guests drank toasts to the bride and groom, punch was served by Miss Nell Causey. The decorations here were of yellow jonquils. In the dining room the decorations were yellow, being tastefully arranged. Refreshments, consisting of heart-shaped cream, mints and cakes, were served by Misses Mary Watson Vaughn, Lynn Richardson and Josephine Vaughn. On a side table the wedding cake was displayed, being surrounded by the souvenirs, boxes of wedding cake on which the letters L. B. were in gold. The cutting of the wedding cake, in which the usual emblems were hidden, was the occasion of much merriment.

Campaign To Clean Up In Greensboro.

The whirlwind campaign to have every backyard and private lot in Greensboro thoroughly cleaned and put in order before Easter has been inaugurated by the civic department of the Woman's Club, and every citizen—whether he lives in a handsome residence or occupies one room in a tenement house—is earnestly requested to give to the movement his active sympathy and support.

For several years past the city health department, cooperating with the Civic League, has insisted on a general spring cleaning, which has lasted through several weeks and resulted in cleaning being done in spots—hundreds of loads of rubbish having been hauled away and conditions greatly improved by reason of the agitation. This year the idea is to skip no one but to adopt a plan by which every home in the city may be reached and every housekeeper appealed to, personally and individually, to do her part towards bringing about the desired end.

The plan provides for the placing in every home of a printed slip, this being an agreement and promise to put premises in order by April 15, the department relying upon the honor of those who give their promise to keep their words. These slips will be distributed by the boy scouts, who contributed so much towards making National Civic day a success, and who are ready at all times to aid in every good work.

Following the distribution by the boy Scouts, the signed slips will be collected by members of the Junior Civic League, who, during next week, will canvass the town and call at every house in the city. To the boy or girl collecting the greatest number of these slips properly signed—with name plainly written, street and number—a cash prize will be given. To those collecting the two next largest numbers, smaller prizes will be given. While exact amounts have not been definitely decided, it is proposed to make the prizes large enough to induce the older boys and girls to enter the contest and work hard to be the winners.

DRY GOODS, SHOES CARPETS

Readers of The Telegram are asked to watch the papers for announcements and to get ready for the spring cleaning on next week. When the boy scout calls to leave a slip for your signature, see that it is taken care of and duly signed, as it may mean success or defeat for some child in whom you are interested and would like to see win a prize. Get your trash together and put it in shape for handling by the city trash wagons. The price for hauling is very low—only five cents a barrel, and a telephone call for 1450 will bring the wagon to your door.

A meeting of the Junior Civic League will be held at Neese's hall Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which time contestants will receive definite instructions for the campaign next week.

Greenville Manager Knows Frank Doyle.

Manager Smith knows Frank Doyle, the manager of the Greensboro team, well and says that he is a good man. Doyle was the second baseman on the Roanoke team of the Virginia League last season.—Daily Piedmont.

A DOLEFUL DIRGE

Where is the pitcher who looked so fast
When he reported a few weeks past?
What has become of the fair-haired boy
Who with the batters was wont to toy?

Back to the Bushes,
Back to the Grass;
Back where they grow
The arms of glass;
Back to the wood-pile,
Back to the Hay,
Back to the League

Where the Rum-dums play.
Where is the fielder who looked so good?
Where is the boy who could wield the wood?
The Lad who in all the games of Spring,
Could cut them off with his mighty wing?

Back to the Bushes,
Back to the cows,
Back where they push
The placid plows;
Back to the barn yard,
Back to the woods,
Branded a "Bloomer"
Without the "goods."
—Tom Akers in Atlanta Journal.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

Fred Clarke will never become a bench manager, according to his wife. Mrs. Clarke wants her husband to retire from the field and coach the ball players from the bench, but admits there is little chance of the Pirate doing any such things. "Clarke just cannot sit on the bench and look at a game in which Pittsburg is playing," says she. "Every time he has ever tried this he came home with a headache. The tension is too great for him, and I am afraid he intends to keep on playing."

Leon Ames, of the Giants, adds himself to the list of big league stars who finds golf the proper caper in their training line. "Golf is the best exercise on earth to keep a pitcher's arm strong during the winter," says Ames. "I can prove it by Vic Willis, Ed Konetchy, Reulbach, and Doc White, all of whom find it a wonderful developer."

Unless Rube Marquard shows the stuff to McGray right off the reel, he is liable to be wearing the uniform of the Newark team of the Eastern League in the very near future. The accident last week to Manager McGinnity's right hand while cranking his auto will make it impossible for him to pitch until about June, and as a result his twirling staff will be weakened. He has asked McGray for a pitcher, preferably Marquard, and the leader of the Giants has promised him the $11,000 flinger if Rube fails to show.

Big Ed Walsh was pitching the other day in Oklahoma City, and the dust blew across the diamond in clouds. Every time he shot up his famous moist ball the damp spots became thickly coated with dust when the ball reached the batter. This new sandpaper effect on the club enabled the rival batsmen to slam Edwards' choicest heaves all over the lot.

Since Mr. La Follette turned tail on reciprocity the country has by no means so much interest in him or in the other insurgents that did likewise, as it had before.—Indianapolis News.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

THE wise guy knows a man gets more benefit out of kicking than he does out of a quiescent gratitude.

Some women wouldn't speak to fortune if she came in old clothes.

Life is never the same to the small boy after he dons his first long trousers.

Being thankful one has things better than others never made an inch of progress in the world.

You can't tell the size of a man's income by the size of the cigar he smokes.

A woman's idea of a standpatter is another woman who refuses to be hobbled by the latest whim of Dame Fashion.

This is the season when the city man dreams vivid pea green dreams of supplying all his friends with fresh vegetables next summer.

The Reason.

"Why does a girl want to change her name?"
"Harmony."
"Harmony?"
"Yes."
"I don't understand."
"She often finds it doesn't fit the kind of clothes she wants to wear."

Feels His Oats.

"Say?"
"Well?"
"Does money really talk?"
"Well, I've noticed one thing about you."
"What's that?"
"If you get any money it tells on you very quickly."

Athletics.

"Miss Strongarm is a success, isn't she?"
"In the right place."
"Right place?"
"Yes, as center rush at the bargain counter."

Hard to Brake.

In youth ambition stretched afar,
And gayly he had planned
To hitch his wagon to a star,
But couldn't make one stand.

One Risk.

"Are you in favor of woman suffrage?"
"Do you think woman would have a refining influence on campaigns?"
"Don't you?"
"Think of the grade of cigars they would buy if they were candidates."

Measured.

"He thinks he is the whole cheese."
"Who?"
"Brown."
"Know what I think of him?"
"No."
"I think he is the hole in the cheese—one of the little ones."

MAN'S GREATEST ASSET

is physical strength and bodily health. The bread winner cannot afford to give out.

It is a vital necessity that he keep his nervous and muscular system in good condition to withstand the daily wear and tear of life.

Those who are run-down, weakened or nervous should remember that nothing excels Vinol, which is a combination of the medical elements of the cod's liver and tonic iron, to strengthen the digestive organs, create an appetite, make new blood and restore strength.

Prof. James Mitchell of Jasper, Ont., says his system was run-down to a critical point from overwork. A friend told him to take Vinol. He did so and is now enjoying perfect health, and he considers Vinol a wonderful tonic. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

We ask every run-down, overworked, weak person in this vicinity to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not do all we claim. Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Her Idea.

"You believe in reciprocity, don't you, dear?"
"Certainly, my love."
"Then we are managing it beautifully, aren't we?"
"What do you mean?"
"Why, you earn the money, you know."
"Well, what of that?"
"Only that I reciprocate by spending it."

Coming to Him.

"He is such a self satisfied thing."
"Isn't that all right."
"I think it is so displeasing to the beholder."
"But, after all he has done, don't you think somebody ought to be pleased with him?"

After waiting several weeks without hearing about hier story, the amateur author wrote the magazine editor, requesting an early decision, saying that she had other "irons in the fire."

Promptly came the editor's reply: "Dear Madam—I have read your story and after giving it careful consideration, I should advise you to put it in with the other irons."

Boss by Courtesy.

"Where is the boss of the house?" asked the book agent.

"In the next room," replied the woman at the door.

"May I see him?"

"Let me know what you want with him and then I will tell you whether you can or not."

There are various kinds of fools, but the one who neglects his work in the interest of the other fellow gets the least out of his foolishness.—Atchison Globe.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the New Drug.

An eminent skin specialist recently discovered a new drug, othine—double strength, which is so uniformly successful in removing freckles and giving a clear complexion that it is sold by Howard Gardner under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Dont' hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first night's use will show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. It is absolutely harmless, and and cannot injure the most tender skin.

Be sure to ask Howard Gardner for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee.

IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD

Special to The Telegram.
(By D. V. FRANCIS.)

New York, April 5.—Announcement was made today that the National Congress of Religious Liberals will be held in this city on April 26, 27 and 28. More than one thousand delegates from all parts of the country are expected to attend.

The sessions will be held in the Church of the Divine Paternity, in Central Park West, of which Rev. Dr. Frank O. Hall is pastor; in Cooper Union, the Friends' meeting house and Temple Emanuel.

Among the speakers will be Henry L. Stimson, and Rabbi Silverman.

The congress meets every two years. The last gathering was in Philadelphia. It is really an outgrowth of the International Council of Liberal Thinkers. Its main object is the consideration of civic movements, Theological subjects are not discussed. Unitarians comprise a large percentage of its membership.

American Protestant missionary societies at work in Portuguese, Africa, have been deeply concerned since the recent revolution in Portugal over what attitude the new government would take toward Protestant missionary activities.

Word has reached the headquarters of the Methodist board here of an interesting and significant interview held recently in Lisbon, Portugal, between Bishop Joseph C. Hartzell and Dr. Alfonso Costa, minister of justice and ecclestiastical affairs, and Capt. Axevido Gobes, minister of colonies and marine.

Dr. Costa said he wanted it understood that the new republican government "is not anti-religious, but is anti-Jesuit and anti-reactionary." He declared they propose to give perfect religious liberty to all.

In the government schools all religious instruction has been prohibited, but church schools may continue their work on condition that reports be made to the government. This policy will be followed in Portugal's foreign colonies.

The continuation committee appointed by the World Missionary conference in Edinburgh last June will hold its first prolonged session in England from May 16 to 20. The committee consists of thirty-five members, ten of them representing mission boards of North America. Among these are Dr. John R. Mott, of this city, chairman; N. W. Rowell, Toronto; Rev. Dr. T. S. Barbour, of the American Baptist Foreign Mission society, Boston; Rev. James L. Barton of the American board of commissioners for foreign messions, Boston; Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church, this city; Rev. Dr. John F. Goucher, of Baltimore; Bishop Walter R. Lambuth, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Nashville, Tenn.; Silas McBee, editor of the Churchman.

A proposition for reduction of the membership in the Presbyterian General Assembly was advanced at the last meeting of the assembly and the executive commission having the matter in charge was in session for three days recently in New York City. The question of board consolidation was thoroughly discussed but no decision was arrived at. April 20 was appointed as the time for another meeeting, to be held at Pittsburg.

The commission, in its New York session covered a vast amount of material which had been prepared for it by its council covering legal questions involved in the consolidation proposals now pending such as combination of boards of home missions, church extension, union of boards of education and colleges, and the creation of a social service bureau by joining temperance committee, Sabbath observance committee, and the department of church and labor. All the interests concerned in these proposals were heard at length.

The commission did dispose finally, so far as its power extends, of the question of assembly reduction. It voted unanimously to recommend to the assembly a plan that will reduce that body by about 200 members. That is, from 850 to 650. This reduction is accomplished wholly by taking representatives from the larger presbyteries, the smaller ones losing nothing. It involves the proposition that here representation shall be based upon the combined number of ministers and churches. The presbyteries in which the sum of ministers and churches amount to less than 100 shall be represented in each assembly by one minister and one elder each. One additional minister and one additional elder will be allotted for every fraction of fifty additional ministers and churches.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

MAJORITY WANT TO REVOKE SPECIAL SCHOOL TAX IN NORTH JEFFERSON DISTRICT

The county board of education has a hard nut to crack just at this time, this being the question as to whether or not the board can refuse to give its approval and endorsement to a petition of two-thirds of the voters in a special tax school district for an election as to whether or not the special tax levied for schools shall be revoked. The board has taken the question under advisement and has written the state superintendent of public instruction and the attorney-general for a ruling.

The question came up when a petition was presented to the board Monday signed by two-thirds of the qualified voters of North Jefferson special tax district, which embraces the schools at McLeansville, Sedalia and Oak Hill, asking for an election to determine whether or not the special tax of 90 cents on the poll and 30 cents on the $100 property valuation now levied therein for schools should be continued. At the time the tax was voted two years ago the law was such that only one-half of the qualified voters of a district need sign a petition to have an election called. A few weeks ago a number of people in the district at McLeansville began circulating petitions calling for an election, but while the petitions were being circulated the legislature amended the state school law, and it was learned that among the amendments was one that required two-thirds to sign a petition to vote off the tax, though only one-half is necessary when the tax is to be voted on.

Undaunted by the change in the law the circulation of the petitions was continued, and so strong was sentiment there against present conditions that the necessary two-thirds was secured—in fact 83 out of 119 qualified voters ask for the election. When the petition was presented the school board took the position that owing to the fact that the committee of the McLeansville school had contracted indebtedness to the extent of $1,000 in erecting a new building, the act of the three committeemen bound the voters and so long as there was an indebtedness the tax could not be voted off. The law says "upon petition of two-thirds of the qualified voters, endorsed and approved by the county board of education, the county commissioners shall call an election, etc." The board wishes to know if this gives it the option of refusing to endorse the petition if there is some other matter envolved, as they feel is the case in Jefferson owing to the indebtedness.

The petitioners have employed Charles A. Hines and David Stern as counsel and are determined to press the matter to a conclusion without any unnnecessary delays. They say that whatever may be the reading of the law that they should have an opportunity to vote upon it; that two-thirds of the people of the community should be allowed to say whether or not the tax shall be levied; that any other construction of the law is undemocratic and unjust.

It is believed that the election will be provided for and that the petition will go before the commissioners. Members of the board of education while expressing regret at the fact that Guilford may probably lose a special tax district, say that they wish to allow the people to rule, provided the county fund will not have to bear the $1,000 indebtedness contracted.

It is contended by the petitioners that the indebtedness has nothing to do with whether or not an election should be held. They say if such matters controlled, the local committee and board of education might prevent an election indefinitely by keeping the district in debt.

Mexico City, April 5.—The peace move in Mexico is meeting many difficulties. A number of disturbances of a serious nature are occurring within fifty miles of the city. The disturbers are termed bandicts, but this causes symptoms of unrest, nevertheless.

Diaz is rapidly learning the true condition now existing in the country and how he will be affected when he learns the extent to which he is opposed can only be surmised. Heretofore he has been kept in ignorance of the real conditions. If the discovery should cause the government to assume a franker attitude then the result would no doubt prove most beneficial.

HARRISON WILL BE COUNTY ASSESSOR

Withdraws Declination of Appointment—Assistant Assessors Appointed—Effort will be Made to Equalize Taxation—Guilford will Profit by Law, it is Believed.

R. W. Harrison, who was appointed county assessor for Guilford county in a long distance telephone conversation with Corporation Commissioner H. C. Brown yesterday consented to withdraw his decision to decline the appointment and take up the work. The County Commissioners yesterday appointed the assistant assessors for the county, these being as follows:

Washington—Cornelius Zimmerman.
Rock Creek—Ed. B. Wheeler.
Greene—Geo. M. Amick.
Madison—J. Richard Moore.
Jefferson—C. M. Pritchett.
Clay—D. H. Coble.
Monroe—J. A. May.
Gilmer—(outside city)—R. A. Gilmer.
Fentress—J. R. McCulloch.
Center Grove—Levi Walker.
Morehead (outside city) E. F. Paschal.
Sumner—R. C. Short.
Bruce—T. A. Wilson.
Friendship—Lee S. Smith.
Jamestown—J. H. Smith.
Deep River—J. Lee Chanler.
High Point— (outside city)—Wm. H. Idol.
High Point (in city)—J. P. Redding.
Oak Ridge—Charles Case.
Greensboro—Morehead—Ward 1, 4, 5—J. H. Johnson.
Greensboro—Gilmer—Wards 2, 3, 6—M. C. Workman.

The salary of the county assessor shall be fixed by the commissioners and shall not exceed $4 per diem. The salary of the assistant or township assessors shall also be fixed by the commissioners, not to exceed $3 per diem. The assessors shall begin work on the first day of May and if possible complete their work before June 1. The law requires that the assessors shall visit each taxpayer in the county and obtain from him a list of all his belongings, both real and personal, together with the true value in money of each item.

The assessor shall require the taxpayer to make and subscribe to the following oath, which shall be attached to each and every schedule: "I ———— ————, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the above and foregoing listed property is a full, true, and complete list of all and each kind of property owned by me or under my control as agent, guardian, personal representative, or otherwise, and that I have not neglected to list for taxation for the year all of each and every kind of property of which I am the owner, or of which I have control as agent, guardian, personal representative, or otherwise, and that I have not in any way connived at the violation or evasion of the requirements of law in relation to the assessment of property for taxation; so help me, God."

County Assessor Harrison stated last night that he had not decided when he would call a meeting of the assistant assessors for the purpose of discussing the law and getting acquainted with the provisions regarding the assessment of property, this being provided for in the law.

The object of the law is to bring about a more equal rate of taxation throughout the entire state. Heretofore some counties have been paying more than their share of the state taxes, while others have been receiving more than was paid into the state treasury. Guilford has been one of the counties that has done more than its share and it is believed that with the equilization of taxes the tax rate will be lowered materially in many counties, Guilford being included in this list.
